Battles of Immense Magnitude are Developing on Eastern Front—Germans Claim Capture of 10,000 Russians and Much War Material—Allies Bombard Positions in the West.

BULLETIN.

London, Feb. 25.—(Midnight).—All the forts at the entrance of the Dardanelles have been reduced by the allied fleet. This announcement was made officially tonight.

London, Feb. 25.—(11 p. m.).—The American note, the contents of which remain a secret, but which in general seeks to bring about an understanding regarding the war zone prescribed by Germany and the shipment of food stuffs designed for the civilian population of the belligerent countries, was considered at a meeting of the cabinet today, but thus far no intimation as to the official attitude towards it can be obtained.

Big Battles Developing.
It is believed here that the destruction of neutral ships and cargoes will embroil Germany with neutral countries and that in the long run the losses which the allies will suffer will be more than offset by the anger aroused on the part of the neutrals and the possible refusal of countries such as Norway to allow goods to be shipped from their ports to Germany. This and other diplomatic questions such as the possible entry of Italy and Roumania into the war, which again is being discussed, have largely overshadowed the news from the battlefields which in military circles is considered of paramount importance. The military experts are keeping their eyes on the operations along the eastern front where battles of immense magnitude are developing.

The Germans apparently having found the Russians' fortress line around the east Prussian front too strong for them, are attempting to make their way to Warsaw from the northwest and starting from Mlawka which has been the base of several previous offensive operations have penetrated as far as the important town of Przasnysz, which is almost directly north of the Polish capital. They claim to have captured there 10,000 prisoners and much war material.

Claim Success in North Poland.
The Germans also claim to have had some success in north Poland, so that they must be in very strong force in that territory. On the Bzura and Rawka rivers, directly west of Warsaw, from which direction the Germans early in the year made such desperate attempts to reach that city, the Russians are on the offensive and according to the German report have made a slight advance in the vicinity of Bolimow. In western Galicia and along the Carpathian ranges battles are still being fought without slackening and thence through eastern Galicia and Bukowina, the Russian and Austro-German forces are fighting stubbornly.

In this war area the temperature remains unusually high for this time of the year and the armies are contesting every foot of ground under the most unfavorable conditions, men, horses and guns sinking deep in the mud which is only coated with ice.

Bombard German Positions.
The armies in the west are faced with the same difficulties and as far as the allies are concerned they are confining the German positions along the coast and to offensive operations in the Champagne, Argonne on the heights of the Meuse and in the Vosges where, on the higher ground, they are not so seriously affected by the thaw.

There has been further contact between the Russians and the Turks in the Caucasus where both claim to have been successful. In the house of commons today, Sir Edward Grey, secretary of foreign affairs, made the important announcement which was received with cheers that Great Britain sympathized with Russian aspirations to gain access to the open sea through Turkey.

MAY SHIFT FIGHT TO HAVANA, CUBA.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 25.—The embargo placed upon the entrance of Jack Johnson at any east coast of Mexico City by General Carranza, combined with the indictments against Johnson at Chicago, has apparently shifted the possibility of staging a championship heavy-weight boxing bout on March 6th, between Jack Johnson and Jess Willard from Juarez, Mexico, to Havana, Cuba.

The promoter of the fight at Juarez, departed today for Havana, "to see what the matter was," he said. "I will bring Johnson to Juarez if I can."

COMMITTEE DECIDES TO COUNT
THE BALLOTS IN COLES COUNTY

Action is Decided After Hearing Testimony of Five Witnesses—May Recount Ballots in Precincts in Mattoon and Charleston.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 25.—After hearing the testimony of five witnesses from Coles county, the house committee conducting the recount of ballots in the thirty-fourth senatorial district decided this afternoon to count the ballots in that county. The vote in the twenty-eight remaining precincts will be recounted and at the conclusion, if it is deemed necessary, the committee will take up the question of counting the votes in the third precinct of the city of Mattoon and the fifth precinct of the city of Charleston.

County Judge John P. Haras; deputy county clerk, Mrs. Jennie Boulware; attorneys C. C. Lee and Ray Real and County Recorder Bessie McCarty testified before the committee regarding the proper preservation of ballots in the two Mattoon and Charleston precincts. An election contest was conducted in Coles county between W. E. Millar, Democrat and Oscar Minter, Republican, for county superintendent of schools. At that time Howard counted the third precinct in Mattoon, Attorney Adair, counted the ballots in the Charleston precinct. The recount upset the result as shown by the original canvass and Minter was seated. The witnesses were of the opinion that the ballots had been properly safeguarded.

The work of recounting the Coles county ballots started late in the afternoon and will be continued tomorrow the committee members having decided to spend all of tomorrow on the job.

FARM CREDITS BILL
IS PASSED BY SENATEWOULD CREATE BUREAU TO MAKE LOANS ON FARM MORTGAGE NOTES

Provision is Incorporated in the Agricultural Appropriation Bill—Loans Would Run for Ten Years at Five Per Cent Interest.

Washington, Feb. 25.—A farm credits bill, providing for government loans to farm owners was attached to the agricultural appropriation bill today in its hurried passage through the senate. Presented by Senator McCumber as an amendment to the supply bill without a record vote at a time when but few senators were in the chamber. The bill itself was passed a short time later.

Loans Would Run Ten Years.
The McCumber amendment would create a bureau of farm credits in the treasury department to make loans of government funds through national banks on farm mortgage notes. These loans would run for ten years at five per cent interest and would be not less than $300, nor more than $10,000 to individuals. Issue of United States 20-year 4-1/2 per cent bonds to establish a permanent fund for $10,000,000 to cover such loans would be authorized. This and other changes increased the bill's total from $23,000,000 to about $36,000,000.

Senator Hollis of New Hampshire made a point of order against the rural credits amendment but withdrew it with the understanding that the measure would be perfected in conference between the house and the senate. There an effort will be made to shape it into a rural credits plan acceptable to the house and to the president. The senate also incorporated in the agricultural bill an amendment appropriating $3,000,000 for the use of the forest service in the Appalachian forest reserves.

Confer on Philippine Bill.

After further conferences tonight it was said that the only change necessary in order to overcome opposition to the Philippine bill would be in the preamble promising independence. One suggestion made was to substitute for "independence" the words "self government."

War News Summarized

Almost simultaneously with the declaration in the house of commons of the British foreign secretary that Great Britain is in entire accord with Russia's desire for access to the open sea comes the announcement by the British admiralty that all the forts at the entrance to the Dardanelles have been reduced. For several days the allied fleets has been pounding at these forts which constituted the greatest obstacles to passage of the straits.

Within the straits and in the sea of Marmora are other fortifications, but these are believed to be of a weaker structure. If once they force the straits the British and French warships, which are thought to number between thirty and forty, would likely attempt a landing with a subsequent march on Constantinople.

The Bosphorus, the narrow strait about 18 miles in length, which connects the Black Sea with the sea of Marmora, is also strongly fortified and it is through this strait that the Black Sea fleet of Russia would have to come in order to reach the open. Berlin reports the capture of Przasnysz, an important town in the north of Warsaw. There the Germans took 10,000 Russian prisoners and it is believed that their intention is to march against the Polish capital from the north. Russia officially declares that the German statements regarding such successes in east Prussia have been greatly exaggerated, that many of the Russian troops who were said to have been annihilated made good their retreat and that the German lines are being held in check.

The fighting in the western zone according to the latest official communications issued by the respective governments, seems to be of a minor nature.

LITTLE BABY WAS FOUND
WRAPPED IN AN APRON

Two Days' Old Infant Discovered Near Telephone Pole Below Maple Grove School Yesterday Afternoon—Inquest Will Be Held.

A two days' old infant was found laying by the side of a telephone pole, about two hundred yards south of the Maple Grove school Thursday afternoon by Horace Massey. The child was wrapped in an apron.

Mr. Massey had been informed by the school children that there was something along side the road and he went to see what it was. The baby had been carefully wrapped in an apron and placed against a telephone pole along the path between the pole and the fence evidently so that it would not be overlooked by a passer-by.

It is supposed that the baby is about two days old and that it had been placed there the night before. Mr. Massey called W. W. Gillham the undertaker, and he removed the body to his establishment. Conner Wright will hold an inquest today. Several of the neighbors were attracted to the scene before the body was removed.

ARGUE FRANK'S CASE
BEFORE SUPREME COURTATTORNEYS CLAIM TRIAL COURT
LOST JURISDICTION OVER PRISONER

Chief Justice White Questions Statement That Judge Roan "Coerced" Frank Into Being Absent When Verdict Was Rendered—Point of Mob Violence Impresses Justice Holmes.

Washington, Feb. 25.—On the ground that the trial court which sentenced Leo M. Frank to die for the murder of Mary Phagan, the Atlanta, Ga., factory girl, had lost its jurisdiction over the prisoner because of mob violence during the trial and the consequent absence of the prisoner from court when the verdict was rendered, attorneys for Frank today argued before the supreme court that their client should be freed from custody.

Questions Statement of Marshall.
Louis Marshall of New York, began the opening argument and will continue it tomorrow when the representatives of Georgia will be heard also. The court is considering an appeal from the refusal of the federal district court of Georgia to interfere in the case. Mr. Marshall's statement that Judge Roan of the trial court "coerced" Frank into being absent when the verdict was rendered was questioned by Chief Justice White. The attorney insisted, however, that the suggestion by the judge that Frank's life and limb and those of his counsel might be in danger if they attended, amounted to coercion. He argued that the right of the accused to be present could not be denied. "We have held that a court may abolish a trial by jury and I do not see why a state may not abolish one of the incidents of a jury trial," interrupted Justice Pitney.

Mr. Marshall replied that it was a question of due process of law and while the fifth amendment to the constitution gave due process in federal cases, the guaranty of due process in state cases in the fourteenth amendment was the same in effect.

Impresses Justice Holmes.
When the point of mob violence was taken up Justice Holmes remarked "I am free to confess that point is one that impresses me very much."

"This court has said that there must be a trial before a competent tribunal," began Mr. Marshall. "A competent tribunal is one that holds the scales of justice impartially, that is not swayed by fear or favor."

"There the trial was marked by prejudice and hostility. There jeers at counsel for Frank were permitted when they lost a point. The crowd almost trespassed upon the jury box, hanging over the jury box and their whippers were heard through the court room. Applause greeted the solicitor general when he appeared at the seat of justice and then the judge held a conference in the presence of the jury with the chief of police and a commanding officer of the state militia."

"That was a demonstration that probably has no parallel in the history of trials. Finally the court asked counsel to meet him in private conference and then upon the insistence of the court that the prisoner might be torn from the sanctuary of the court and lynched by a mob if he was present when the verdict was returned, counsel consented to his being absent. The jury was left to return its verdict to the prosecuting officers and the mob. They knew what that meant."

Justice Pitney inquired if the state supreme court had not passed upon all these facts, whereupon Justice Holmes asked if Mr. Marshall did not mean that if these were the facts it did not matter if twenty courts had passed upon them. The attorney signified his acquiescence.

YOUNG WOMAN IS BEATEN TO DEATH
WITHIN THE CITY LIMITS OF AURORA

Emma Peterson is Found Unconscious on Sidewalk—Dies in Ambulance While on Way to Hospital.

Aurora, Ill., Feb. 25.—A young woman, the third within a year, was beaten to death within the limits of this city tonight. Emma Peterson was found unconscious on the sidewalk shortly before midnight, her skull fractured and her jaw broken. She died in the ambulance while being taken to a hospital. The body was found by two girls on their way home. It was in the residence district, only a block from the home of A. J. Hopkins, former United States senator. No weapon was found.

The first of the trio of tragedies was the death of Theresa Holland, who was found in St. Nicholas cemetery last February. Her erstwhile sweetheart, Tony Petras, was charged with the murder but was acquitted.

A month or so later Jennie Miller, an elderly member of one of the best known families in the city, was beaten to death with a heavy wrench while on her way home from a motion picture show.

The woman killed tonight was about twenty-two years old. She lived at the home of John Dooling, a retired saloon keeper, less than a block from where the body was found.

TO DECIDE TODAY WHETHER TO CALL SPECIAL SENATE SESSION

Administration is Anxious to Have Colombian and Nicaraguan Treaties Ratified.

Washington, Feb. 25.—Whether a special session of the senate shall be called by President Wilson after March 4th, to consider the Colombian and Nicaraguan treaties probably will be decided by the president tomorrow at a cabinet meeting. Many of the president's advisers are opposed to the special session, but the administration is very anxious to have the treaties ratified and it was considered probable tonight that the session would be called on March 5th.

Members of the senate foreign relations committee were given to understand at its last meeting that Colombia was becoming very much aroused over the delay in the ratification of the treaty and was considering protesting to the powers unless some action was taken.

NEGRO WHO STOLE AUTO
HELD AT JACKSONVILLE

Carlinville, Feb. 25.—Sheriff H. E. Knoemeler on information received went to Plainview Wednesday and arrested a negro who gave his name as Anderson, on the charge of the theft of an automobile from a Mr. Brown, a broker of St. Louis, and brought him to this city and placed him in jail. In the afternoon the owner of the automobile and officers arrived from St. Louis and identified the machine and took the prisoner back.

The information as to Anderson's whereabouts was obtained in a peculiar manner. Detective Allmont of St. Louis was here Tuesday evening and left a card with a description of the stolen automobile and a picture of the robber. Mrs. Baird, having relatives near Plainview, happened to call them up during the evening and during the conversation mentioned the fact that a negro had stolen an automobile from St. Louis. She was told by the party there was an automobile stalled in the road in front of their place and the chauffeur was a negro and no one was with him.

The car was a six passenger Packard. The driver did not tell a very plausible story.

Mrs. Baird immediately notified Sheriff Knoemeler and he went down to the place and arrested the man. A reward of $200 was offered for his arrest.

SAYS LEGISLATION HAS
DISTRACTED BUSINESSJAMES J. HILL WRITES MESSAGE TO CHICAGO TRAFFIC CLUB

States not the Best Legislator nor the Ablest Lawyer can Give any More Than a Hint What Effects These Regulations Will Have on Business.

Chicago, Feb. 25.—Legislation of the last two years, the most important in commercial and financial affairs since the civil war, has so distracted business that not the best legislator nor the ablest lawyer can give any more than a hint what the effects of these regulations will be upon business, James J. Hill wrote in a message read before the Traffic club of Chicago at its annual banquet tonight. Mr. Hill did not offer an opinion as to the ultimate effect of this legislation, but predicted that the adaptation of country's business to the new conditions would produce a trial period extremely critical for every kind of activity.

"Business Needs a Rest."
"What productive activity needs most, what it has needed and what must be given to it soon if it is not to suffer under accumulating troubles is simply a period of freedom from uncertainty resulting from constant political attacks," the message said. "Business needs a rest."

"Any revision of the tariff requires two years before commerce can adjust itself to the new schedule. This country is making such an adjustment now, but so much less important and uncertain in effect it is than other changes in progress that business men almost forget the tariff in trying to forecast and prepare for the future."

"The next new element in the federal banking and currency system, the first attempt in the nation's history to deal with this subject in the light of economic principles. The public as a whole though not overlooking the faults of the system believes it will work out well as a preventative of panics. Yet only experience can bring out in practice its merits and its faults."

"Some Uncertainty Remains."
"Some uncertainty remains and uncertainty, almost as much as actual disaster, slows down business operations everywhere."

These two measures alone would compel business to proceed cautiously, Mr. Hill. The new corporation commission and the Clayton bill he listed as newer legislation of doubtful propriety and questionable results.

The commission while only supervisory embodies a fundamental principle, according to Mr. Hill, in asserting the right of the federal government to control and regulate business as a whole.

William Spruille Addresses Club.
The country is in the midst of a period of unemployment and distress, "the like of which the nation never saw before," William Spruille, president of the Pacific System of the Southern Pacific company, declared. He attributed this condition to what he said was a long continued clamor against all sorts of public businesses and predicted its end only when returning prosperity for employers should bring prosperity for the unemployed. Beginning by outlining difficulties faced by the transportation business which, he said had "lost its momentum," he discussed the state of business generally and took vigorous exception to any suggestion that business conditions would be better if business men believed they would be better.

MAKING SCIENCE

SERVE THE PUBLIC

The magnificent new home of the Mellon Institute of Industrial Research and School of Specific Industries of the University of Pittsburgh will be dedicated today. With the object of bringing science closer to the people and applying its great research work to the things of everyday life, two Pittsburgh brothers, Andrew Mellon and Richard Beatty Mellon offered a half million dollars to establish the institute on a permanent basis. The work had been begun here by the late Dr. Robert Kennedy Duncan, formerly of the University of Kansas. The success of its research work in glass, in oil in natural gas, in fertilizer, soap and glue, and even in the making of bread has already spread far and wide. And today, a magnificent building, with every convenience and instrument for the conduct of this important work, was given over to the research experts.

Above the doorway of the new edifice, in bronze, is this inscription: "This Building is Dedicated to the Service of American Industry and to Young Men Who Dedicate Their Life Work to the Industries; the Goal Being Ideal Industry Which Will Give to all Broader Opportunities for Purposeful Lives."

The opening of the new building today offers accommodation for 70 separate researches. With its splendid equipment, its library, and its two years' experience in successful research, and the traditions left by Dr. Duncan, the institute promises great possibilities along its unique line of endeavor.

Contrary to the opinions of many learned scientists, it has been found feasible to apply the vast correlated knowledge called science to the practical needs of the human race. It has been recognized that sooner or later America's opportunity must lie in the power to apply science to the economy and progress of manufacturing. The elimination of waste is the big present-day problem in all industry. Germany many years ago recognized the problem, and has made great advancement in the utilization of every product and by-product to its full. But Americans in their shorter period of industrial development have made fortunes from the wealth of natural resources, but have neglected to get the full value from their material, through the waste of by-products and less valuable ores.

Under the system in force at the Mellon Institute, industrials may submit their perplexing manufacturing problems on utilization of wastes, the betterment and cheapening of the products manufactured or the discovery of new and useful products. Dr. Raymond F. Bacon, the director, selects the best available man who can be found for the particular work. This man spends some weeks in the factory to study the problem first hand. He familiarizes himself through reading with the previous work along similar lines done in other parts of the world. His actual work at first is the building of a "unit plant" on a very small scale and it is here that the scientific work is done.

It was the idea and hope of the late Dr. Duncan that ultimately, through the spread of the system of research which he had thought out, such economies in industry would be introduced and such new processes and agents and powers discovered, as to bring about what he termed "a more gracious civilization"—a civilization in which man will have secured for himself a surplus of goods, the possession of which will give him an opportunity really to enjoy life. And it is with this noble purpose in view—the bettering of the conditions for the whole of mankind—that the home of the modern research was planned.

HOPE FOR RURAL CREDITS BILL

The senate took unexpected action yesterday in attaching to the agricultural appropriation bill a provision for farm credits. It was presented by Senator McCumber and incorporated in the supply bill when few senators were in the chamber. A point of order was raised but withdrawn with the understanding that there will be a conference before the bill goes to the house for action. It is proposed by the McCumber amendment to create a bureau of farm credits in the treasury department to make loans of government funds through national banks on farm mortgage notes. The proposed loans would run for ten years at five per cent interest for not less than $300 or more than $10,000 to an individual. All the conditions it is known will not be satisfactory to the house or to the president and an effort will be made to shape up for final passage a bill somewhat in accordance with the president's original plan. The administration stands pledged to give some aid to farmers along the lines indicated and it is expected that the bill which will be finally passed will include some of the features which have made rural credits in Germany so successful. It is believed that a correct system of rural credits will not only aid the farmer but eventually result in savings to the consumer. The general idea will be acceptable to the country at large and based on European experience the results will be generally beneficial.

ALPHA SOCIETY HOLDS MEETING AT FRANKLIN SCHOOL THURSDAY

Good Program is Given by Pupils—Eugene Darr, President of the Society, Addresses Meeting.

A meeting of the Alpha society of the Franklin school was held Thursday afternoon at the school when a good program was given by the pupils. At the opening of the meeting Eugene Darr, the president of the society, gave a brief talk, which follows: "The purpose of this society is to help the children in their studies as well as to give them time to rest and have a change of studies. There will be a friendly rivalry of course, but I hope and think there will be no hard feelings in case, in our plays, we should wish a pupil of the other society to take part. I think they should show their spirit of friendliness by letting us use the students. I suppose there is some opposition to the plan, but I hope that it will be adopted. We know that all criticism from our principal, Mrs. Dunlap, will be taken with a spirit of friendliness and good feeling and we hope that through her criticism our society will grow to be the largest and best in the city."

MEETING THURSDAY NIGHT

Quiz and Discussion at Public Library Brings Forth Opinions on Vital Municipal Issues—Wide Range of Topics Embraced
In Platforms Promulgated—L. O. Vaught Presides.

Are you personally in favor of a dry town?
How long have you been so?
As a Commissioner will you insist that our Dry laws be enforced?

Are you in favor of the proposed Ordinance reducing salaries?

If assigned to the Department of Safety will you serve as Chief of Police, dispensing with that Office? Saving the salary now paid to the city.

If you are assigned to the Department of Public Property will you act as Water Superintendent, dispensing with that Office?

If you are assigned to the Department of Streets will you be the Street Commissioner or Superintendent of Streets, dispensing with that Office?

As to City Employees, will you favor the appointment of men for their fitness regardless of other matters?

Do you believe the City can be so run that City Employees can be promptly paid their salaries, without forcing them to shave the same?

Are you in favor of a Municipal owned Electric Light plant?

Do you think such a plant should be developed from our present plant from the revenues of the city or will you favor the people voting bonds for such purpose?

Do you favor the extension of the North-end pumping station?

Will you favor the system followed up to this time of periodically fining gamblers and bawdy house inmates for disorderly conduct, thus making them a regular source of revenue, protected by the city?

Will you favor the creation of a modern Board of Health for the City with such duties as it should have, being guided in this matter somewhat by the recommendation of the Morgan County Medical society, or will you favor the present system?

Can the City be run so that the total revenue will meet the total expenses? Will you so run your department and will you insist that the others do the same?

Will you favor publishing full and complete monthly reports as the law requires?

Will you insist that proper proceedings be had to determine whether the Jacksonville Railway & Light Co., has at present a franchise for the street railway conducted by it on our street?

If it is found that it has no such franchise, will you favor forcing it to pay the city a certain amount for the use of the street, including compensation for both past and future use?

Questions of public policy were discussed and views on municipal matters set forth by a number of the candidates for city commissioner at a public meeting last evening in the audience room of the public library.

A list of questions had been prepared embodying the chief points at issue in the coming election and upon this most of the candidates based their remarks. The meeting was arranged for several days ago when a group of citizens met and hit upon this method for securing a statement of the political views and personal platforms of the several candidates.

L. O. Vaught, who acted as chairman, stated the purpose of the meeting and said that the day has passed when candidates were expected to promise anything and everything for the sake of vote getting merely. He then read the questions, explaining that they were suggestive only but voicing the desire that candidates confine remarks so far as practicable to the points set forth therein.

This plan was adhered to and although several of the candidates had their talks prepared and others spoke impromptu and did not touch upon all of the points, most of the speakers based their remarks upon the list.

The candidates who spoke were William S. Badger, Carlin C. Berryman, Francis M. Brewer, Jerry Cox, William DeMotte, Gates, Edward Kastrup, B. F. Ragsdale, George V. Skinner, Joe E. Stice, Joshua Vasconcellos and William F. Widmayer.

Mr. Badger's Address.

"I have been brought up in the nurture and admonition of temperance," said Mr. Badger in beginning. "I had a mother who was a 'White-Ribboner' and during the forty-eight years of my life I have stood for the principles the white ribbon implies. I have always been opposed to the saloon and always expect to be. All violators of the local option law should be summarily dealt with."

"I favor complete suffrage for woman, for in my opinion, there should be no taxation without complete representation in governmental affairs. I favor suffrage, not only on municipal, but on state and national affairs. As a commissioner my motto in all things will be 'law, order, sobriety and peace.'

"Especially shall I endeavor to carry out a policy of economy. I believe in an up-to-date fire department, thoroughly adequate to protect the property of the city. I believe in an efficient police department, composed of men conversant with their duties, favoring none and not to be 'called off' by the offender of influence. I am in favor of plenty of light and look favorably upon municipal ownership of light and water plants. I shall work for well-kept parks and clean and well-lighted streets. The schools, I think, should be given best possible consideration and the school buildings, to my idea, should be furnished light from the municipal plant." Mr. Badger urged the necessity of harmony between the commissioners and between the various departments. He said the mayor and commissioners should at all times be the people's servants. Franchise matters, should be given popular consideration at the earliest time possible. In reply to question he said he would be willing to act as water superintendent or street commissioner, as the case might be. A commissioner, he said, should be the head of his department and should do all the work in that department which is physically possible. "Gamblers should be forced to leave the city," he said.

Mr. Berryman Speaks.

"I am emphatically in favor of a dry town," said Carlin C. Berryman, basing his remarks on the question. "When I lived on a farm near here a number of years ago I often felt actually ashamed of the town to which I came to trade. Personally I have always opposed the open saloon and the strictest law enforcement in this regard I most heartily favor. Personal qualification I esteem of greater import than rate of pay," said Mr. Berryman in discussing the salary question. "Some men are worth more at $2,000 per year than others at $500 and I think it more important that good officials be elected than that salaries be reduced. When a man is elected commissioner and assigned to a department, he should be head of that department, in fact as well as in name. I believe in appointing men capable of giving their best to the city, without regard to matters of personal friendship or political faith. As the only source now in view, I favor the development of the north end pumping station. Disreputable houses and gamblers I think can be run out and I oppose the practice in the present system of periodic fines." Mr. Berryman mentioned the problems confronting larger cities as St. Louis and East St. Louis, and he said he thought a city no larger than Jacksonville should be maintained on the revenue available. Emergencies are likely to arise, he admitted, but as a general rule there should be no great trouble in "making both ends meet."

"I certainly am in favor of monthly reports from the various departments," said Mr. Berryman. The candidate referred briefly to his record as county commissioner and invited inspection of all work done by him in that capacity.

Mr. Skinner's Views.

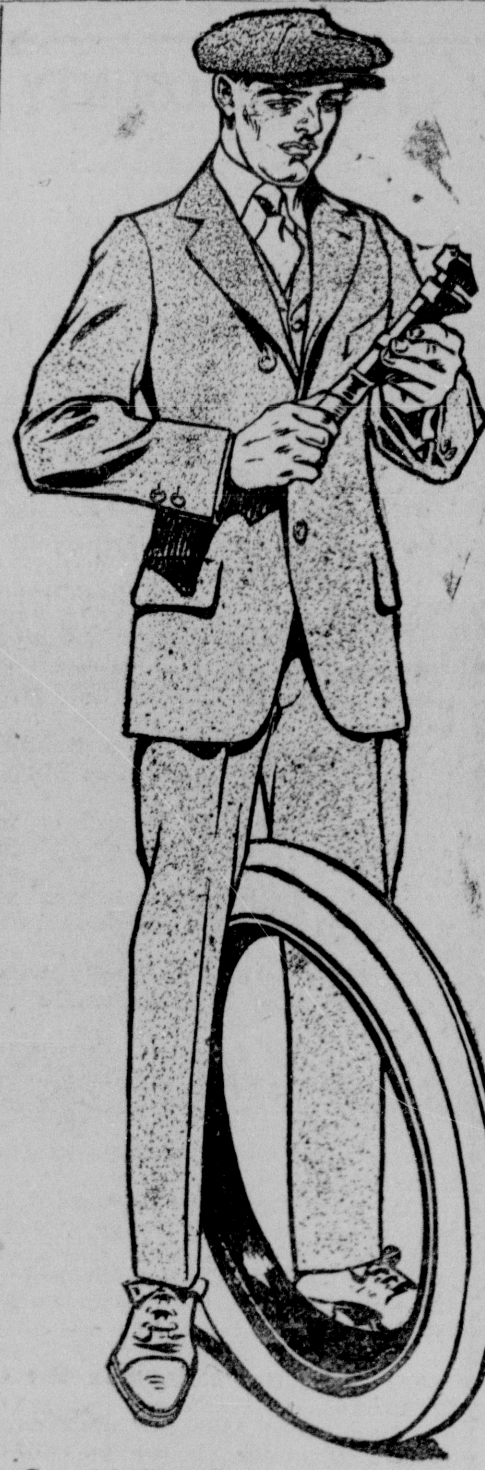

"The city should be run within its income," said George V. Skinner, referring to financial matters. "This should be possible at all ordinary times and the city's affairs I should expect to conduct on those principles of economy men are compelled to make use of in their private business." Mr. Skinner expressed contempt for the system of fining gamblers and houses of ill fame. He agreed that a speedy settlement of franchise matters would be desirable, but said that company earnings should be taken into account and that it were better to allow the utility the use of the streets than to do without car service altogether. "I never was much in favor of cheap help," said Mr. Skinner. "I have had experiences with it in my own business which convince me that it is often dearer in the long run."

Frances M. Brewer.

"I heartily accord with the views expressed by Mr. Badger and Mr. Berryman," said Francis M. Brewer when called upon by the chairman. I have endeavored to place a copy of my platform in every house in Jacksonville and realizing that most of you are familiar with my platform already, I will not take the time to express my views at this time."

Mr. Cox States Creed.

"I believe in strict enforcement of law," said Jerry Cox in the course of brief remarks, "and will if elected, give the duties of my office my best consideration." Mr. Cox concluded the statement of his political creed by asserting his adherence to the present local option laws and said he did not wish to answer the questions as he had been taken unawares and had not had time to

Sick Women Attention

Is it possible there is a woman in this country who continues to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, which proves beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other one medicine in the world?

We have published in the newspapers of the United States more genuine testimonial letters than have ever been published in the interest of any other medicine for women—and every year we publish many new testimonials, all genuine and true. Here are three never before published:

From Mrs. S. T. Richmond, Providence, R. I.

PROVIDENCE, R. I.—"For the benefit of women who suffer as I have done I wish to state what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I did some heavy lifting and the doctor said it caused a displacement. I have always been weak and overworked after my baby was born and inflammation set in, then nervous prostration, from which I did not recover until I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The Compound is my best friend and when I hear of a woman with troubles like mine I try to induce her to take your medicine."—Mrs. S. T. Richmond, 84 Progress Avenue, Providence, R. I.

From Mrs. Maria Irwin, Peru, N.Y.

PERU, N.Y.—"Before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was very irregular and had much pain. I had lost three children, and felt worn out all the time. This splendid medicine helped me as nothing else had done, and I am thankful every day that I took it."—Mrs. MARIA IRWIN, R.F.D. 1, Peru, N.Y.

From Mrs. Jane D. Duncan, W. Quincy, Mass.

SOUTH QUINCY, MASS.—"The doctor said that I had organic trouble and he doctored me for a long time and I did not get any relief. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised and I tried it and found relief before I had finished the first bottle. I continued taking it all through middle life and am now a strong, healthy woman and earn my own living."—Mrs. JANE D. DUNCAN, Forest Avenue, West Quincy, Mass.

Consultation and Examination FREE

Dr. E. O. Gable, the Chicago Specialist, Will be at the Dunlap Hotel from 9 A. M. Wednesday, March 3, Until 2 P. M. Thursday, March 4th.

DR. EDWIN O. GABLE

Dr. E. O. Gable, the Neuropathic Specialist of Chicago, will return to the Dunlap Hotel for his 15th consecutive visit, from 9 a. m., Wednesday, March 3, until 2 p. m., Thursday, March 4. He will give his consultation and examination free to all sufferers of chronic disease who will call on him this trip.

Dr. Gable's object in doing this is to introduce and explain his new system of treating diseases. He is the author of the Dr. Gable Neuropathic System of treating diseases. This system of treatment is founded on the theory that all disease of the body, no matter where located, are caused by some germ or disease deposit settling in the part. This interferes with normal circulation, presses on the nerves and gradually destroys the functions of the organ, causes irritation of the brain and nervous system. He claims that if you can remove this disease deposit, restore circulation and relieve the pressure on the nerves, most chronic diseases can be relieved, no matter in which organ it is located or how long standing if the treatment is used before the tissues are too badly destroyed.

He has had great success in relieving many old chronic cases where other treatments failed. He absolutely believes that he can relieve any case of rheumatism, either acute or chronic. It relieves all curable forms of kidney trouble, bladder trouble, weakness of these organs. This treatment gives almost immediate relief of dyspepsia, indigestion, fermentation, constipation, liver troubles; it relieves most forms of blood disease, chronic skin trouble and nervous diseases. He wants every person suffering from any of these troubles to call on him at the hotel this trip. He will be glad to explain fully all about this system of treatment and tell you frankly whether or not in his opinion your case is curable free of charge. If you suffer with any of these chronic troubles you cannot afford to miss this opportunity. Dr. Gable is making visits here regularly each month and wants to treat as many people as possible in and around Jacksonville, in order to prove, in as many cases as possible, the great success he is having with this system of treatment. His hours will be from 9 to 12 and 1 to 5 and 7 to 8. Ask for Dr. E. O. Gable. Chicago address, 6132 Langley Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

COURT ORDER TO HALT TRANSFER OF KANSAS CITY FED FRANCHISE

Writ of Injunction is Served on Gilmore as he Boards Train for the Buffalo Meeting Today.

Chicago, Feb. 25.—A temporary injunction issued by the circuit court late today will halt the transfer of the Kansas City Federal league franchise to P. T. Powers of New York which was expected to be effected at the meeting of the league in Buffalo tomorrow. The injunction was issued after the Kansas City club has filed a suit to restrain the Federal League Professional Baseball clubs from transferring the franchise.

The writ of injunction was served on James A. Gilmore, president of the Federals tonight just as he was boarding a train for the Buffalo meeting. The bill recites that under the franchise given by the defendant league February 28th, 1914, it was understood that the Kansas City club could operate permanently as a member of the league and that consequently the club had assumed a great many obligations.

While admitting that loans had been made from time to time by the league, the club asserted that these loans are offset by sums due from the defendant. The bill states that, although the club has repeatedly asked the league for a statement of its account, being ready to pay any just claims, the league has refused any such statement, although continuing to claim a balance due from the club.

The suit was set for a hearing on March 5th.

PROBE OF ROCK ISLAND ROAD BEGINS

Washington, Feb. 25.—The postponed investigation of the financial operations of the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railroad will begin before the Interstate Commerce Commission today. Commissioner Clements will have charge of the probe, which is expected to develop sensational testimony from the warring factions who have been contending for years for the control of the road. Daniel G. Reid, the deposed chairman of the board of directors, who resigned in January, just before the smaller stockholders entered suit against the directors, is expected to be one of the principal witnesses. Serious charges of misconduct in handling the funds of the railroad have been made against Mr. Reid. It was under his domination that the roads affairs reached such a serious state that the court ordered the property to be sold. Some six years ago the Rock Island was a storm center in the stock market. It shares skyrocketed from $50 to $81 a share and went back again the same day, making and losing fortunes in the world of investment.

OUTLOOK FOR ADJUSTMENT IMPROVES DISTINCTLY

Peking, China, Feb. 25.—The outlook for an adjustment of the differences which have arisen between China and Japan has improved distinctly. The conferences between representatives of the two nations apparently are progressing toward a compromise.

The most important step yet taken in this direction was disclosed here today. The Japanese government has indications which are regarded as definite that it will not insist for the present upon the group of general demands which it presented. These include the chief points upon which China based her resistance to the representations from Tokio.

Don't forget to attend the big basketball tournament Friday and Saturday, Feb. 26-27, 17 fast teams. High school gym.

DISSOLUTION SALE

Property belonging to the firm of Simeon Fernandes Sons will be sold at public auction, Tuesday, March 2, commencing at 1 o'clock sharp. The sale will take place at the corner of Clay and Ashland avenue, the offerings to include horses, wagon, harness, corn, oats, hay, hogs, machinery, concrete blocks and plant, tools, office scales, etc. Terms: all sums $100 and under, cash; on sums over this amount, credit of three months will be given, with notes to bear 7 per cent interest until paid. Notice is hereby given that all accounts of the firm are now due and are payable to Simeon Fernandes.

THE NEW DIRECTORY

W. G. Elwell of Champaign and R. R. Clark of Bloomington are here delivering the new city directory just issued. The work seems to be very well prepared and contains considerable useful information. It has an edge index which is convenient and the country residents throughout the county are alphabetically arranged instead of by rural routes which is also an improvement. There is also quite a bit of information regarding the city, lodges, churches and the like.

MOVING TO BEARDSTOWN

The offices of the Central Illinois Public Service company which have been quartered in a suite of four rooms in the Scott block for the past year or more, will be moved to Beardstown and business will probably be conducted from that city next week. The office fixtures, desks and supplies were being prepared for shipment Thursday, and it was expected the offices would be closed by Saturday night.

A VALUED RELIC

Mrs. Daisy Pelschlager has left at the Journal office a valuable relic in the shape of a piece of the bell which hung in the tower of the First Presbyterian church which was burned in 1883. It is a wonderfully heavy piece of metal for its size and is much prized by the owner.

EUROPEAN WAR NOTES

Berne, Switzerland, Feb. 25.—Via Paris, (4:10 p. m.)—A Wolff Agency despatch from Brussels says that the German General VonBissing has authorized the sequestration of all business enterprises in Belgium owned by subjects or citizens of nations with which Germany is at war.

Geneva, via Paris, Feb. 25.—(3:25 p. m.)—A despatch received here from Constance says that two allied aeroplanes were seen Tuesday night from Constance flying southward. As a result there was great excitement in Friedrichshafen. The Zeppelins there, it is said, were covered with metal netting. The lights in the town were extinguished and the people took to the cellars. The aeroplanes flew over Merzburg and later reached Belfort safely.

London, Feb. 25.—(9:25 p. m.)—Telegrams from Budapest report fierce fighting around Stanislaw, Galicia," says Reuter's Venice correspondent. "The Russians are said to be hurling reserves after reserves into the fighting line and to be defending their positions with the greatest stubbornness.

"The chief struggle is proceeding on the heights around the town where the Russians have concentrated with the object of stopping the advance of the Austrian right, which threatens their whole front. "In the Carpathians near Wyszok large Russian forces are making continuous attacks with fresh reserves."

Berlin, via London, Feb. 25.—(9:40 p. m.)—Captain Kurd Roessler, general secretary of the German committee on Olympic games, was killed in a recent battle in the Mazurian Lake district. Captain Roessler, who visited the United States with the German Olympic committee in 1913, afterward retired from the army in order to devote his entire time to preparations for the Olympic games which were to have been held in Berlin in 1916. At the outbreak of the war, however, he re-entered the army and is said to have served with conspicuous gallantry first in the western zone of hostilities and then in the eastern.

Paris, Feb. 25.—(10:30 p. m.)—The following official communication was issued by the war office tonight. In the region of Lombaert, zyde our artillery has reduced to silence and severely damaged a battery of the enemy.

"The day has been relatively calm on the front from the Lys as far as the Champagne district. In the region of Souain and Beaulieu the operations continue under conditions favorable for us.

"Notably, we have captured a German work to the north of Menin. Menin inflicted heavy losses on and dispersed by our fire a column on the march to the southeast of Lahure, silenced the fire of a hostile battery and blown up several caissons.

"In the Argonne on the little stream of Meurizons, near Four-De-Paris, we destroyed a block house. At Marie Therez a German attack in an attempt to debauch was repelled by our fire."

London, Feb. 25.—(9:30 p. m.)—A despatch to Reuter's Telegram company from Venice says:

"The Austrian government is confiscating entire stocks of grain and flour in the monarchy. After an approximate estimate is made of the available supply a per capita apportionment will be announced and a distribution made through the local authorities.

"Severe fines and other penalties will be inflicted on any person for attempting to secret supplies of grain and flour.

"The government has issued an order under which 300,000 acres of land which had been used in the cultivation of the sugar beet are made available for grain production. It is said that Austria will receive only maize from Hungary."

POINT CHURCH MARKET

TWO VIEWS

It rained all day, and Sarah Jane surveyed the dismal scene; her face against the window pane, she gazed and cried, "How mean! Here I'm condemned to stay inside, and mope and break my heart, when I would like to take a ride in Willie's chug-chug cart! Oh, rain, you spoil this life of mine, you make me wail and sob! The sun should have to pay a fine for loafing on its job!" Said Gladys Mae Rebecca, "Hoots! This weather can't be beat! It's just the stuff for men and brutes, and also for the wheat. What more could any one desire than such a day as this when one can sit before the fire, and read, in perfect bliss? The music of the blessed rain, as on the roof it falls, should soothe away our every pain, and heal our harness galls. I like the sunshine when it gleams on hill and bosky dell, but when the rain gets wet and streams, I like that just as well."

Then Gladys Mae Rebecca took the Uplift Magazine, and in the cozy inglenook enjoyed the afternoon; while Sarah Jane, with gloomy mind, looked forth at gusty showers, and, in a manner most refined, she cursed the dragging hours.

WERE GIVEN SURPRISE

Friends and Neighbors Help Mrs. Thomas Martin to Celebrate Her Birthday.

February 25th was the birthday of Mrs. Thomas Martin of Hackett avenue and accordingly her friends and neighbors deemed the event worthy of a fine celebration. The idea was first conceived and managed later by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pliesser and their daughters, Misses Eunice and Pearl.

The scheme was a complete success and all went well from start to finish. Mr. Martin is a salesman in the store of Brady Brothers and he and his wife have many friends glad to do them honor. The self invited guests proceeded to invade the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin and take possession promptly. The surprise was complete and for a few moments the victims were almost speechless but in due time regained their composure and fully accepted the situation.

The hours of the evening were delightfully spent in a social way, games and music from a fine Victrola varying the program.

An elegant three course supper was enjoyed by the guests and all vied with each other in making the occasion as delightful as possible and it was at a late hour that the company dispersed with many good wishes for their esteemed friend.

Among the guests present there were Mr. and Mrs. Thos. SOIL EXPERT COMING.
A few years ago the farmers of DeKalb county, employed a soil expert, Mr. Eackard, and the first year the results were so satisfactory that he has been kept there ever since and the men of that county regard his salary as the best kind of an investment.

He is to be here the 10th of March and address the farmers' club and he should have a large audience.

There is considerable prejudice against "book farming" but facts tell the best story. Some years ago, Mr. Ridgely of Springfield said he had a large tract, (1,800 acres, as the writer recollects it,) in Champagne county and went to the state university and secured as manager the best man he could find there to take charge of his farms and he said the result was an increase of fifty per cent in the yield of the large tract of land. This much more than paid for the salary of the man and was a valuable object lesson as well.

TAKES OF DANDRUFF;
HAIR STOPS FALLING

Girls! Try This! Makes Your Hair Thick, Glossy, Fluffy, Beautiful.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25c bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine—Adv.

NOTES FROM THE LABOR WORLD

British Columbia's labor commission has barred the employment of white women by Asiatics.

New York workers support their own standing army. There are 10,000 industrial insurance agents in that city.

The odor from the Denver strike will continue to rise until the trial of the 103 mine workers' officials is ended.

Statistics show that one man is killed every 15 minutes and one is hurt every 16 seconds, day and night in the United States.

Out in Goldfield they have established a club to bring together in social and business relations all elements in the community.

Co-operative stores are starting every day. Chicago recently opened up two new ones, and at Cedar Point, Ill., the workers have pooled and opened one.

Efforts to adjust the Ohio coal strike seem to have been fruitless. The government committee has tried hard to get the operators to give way partially at least.

After all the good work of the Industrial Relations Committee, its report is not likely to be printed, unless a general public demand forces this to be done.

Government employees in the Canal Zone are asking Congress to probe their charges that the military government has violated its agreement to maintain wages until April 1st.

The tin plate workers at Pittsburgh recently accepted a cut in wages of from 6 to 11 per cent. The employers agreed to maintain certain standards that are beneficial to their 15,000 employees.

The typographical union of Germany paid for unemployment benefits $425,000 during the first three months of the war. 25 per cent were in the army and 23 per cent were out of work on November 1.

The labor unions of the Seine, which includes Paris, are serving meals for six cents that are truly wonderful. Soup, meat, wine and bread without limit are served at noon, and in the evening a wine dinner is served for ten cents.

The Danbury Hatters are still in hot water. The federation having refused to assess its members 15 cents each to extricate them, the Congressmen have appealed to Congress to appropriate the sum to pay the fine.

Prompt payment of workmen's compensation is being sought in California and Montana. In Michigan there is a movement to increase the benefit to one half the injured workman's wages, and make the period up to 200 weeks.

An interesting compensation case in Ohio resulted in the award of six years' pension at $12 per week for a telephone worker, despite the fact that the telephone company had settled with him for $3,000 cash.

According to Louis D. Brandeis, savings bank insurance in Massachusetts has saved the workers of that state over a million dollars a year, by forcing better rates from all the industrial companies. It is now proposed to raise the limit on single policies from $500 to $1,000.

The inauguration of the federal employment bureau has brought a misunderstanding as to whether it will be used for or against organized labor. Although Secretary Wilson was himself a union miner, it is not believed the government aid will be limited to union views or conditions.

"To protect the American home and family, to preserve the self-respect of American manhood, to conserve the unalienable American rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness, an adequate and just workman's compensation law is absolutely necessary."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

HUGGINS SIGNS WITH CARDS.

MRS. SLACK'S LETTER
To Mothers of Delicate Children.
Palmyra, Pa.—"My little girl had a chronic cough and was so thin you could count her ribs and she had no appetite. Nothing we gave her seemed to help her, until one day Mrs. Nelson asked me to try Vinol, and now she is hungry all the time, her cough is gone, she is stouter and has a more healthy color. I wish every mother who has a delicate child would try Vinol."

Mrs. Alfred Slack.
We guarantee Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, to make delicate children healthy and strong—Lee P. Alcott, druggist, Jacksonville, Ill., and at leading drug stores everywhere—Adv.

CHANDLER IS ARRAIGNED ON CONSPIRACY INDICTMENT

Set March 29 as Date for Chandler, Bowker and Viljoen to Plead—Aviles to be Arraigned Later.

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 25.—Harry Chandler, son-in-law of General Harrison Gray Otis, owner of the Los Angeles Times, was arraigned today in the United States district court on an indictment recently returned charging him with participation in an alleged conspiracy to send an armed force into the Mexican territory of Lower California.

W. K. Bowker, manager of million acre ranch on the border belonging to Chandler and General Otis, also was arraigned with General B. J. Viljoen, a former Boer army commander. March 29th was the date set for them to plead to the indictments.

Baltazar Aviles, former governor of Lower California, to whom money was paid by Chandler, and two other Mexicans, will be arraigned later.

HOG FEEDERS

We find after several tests, that 1-3 alfalfa chopped up and mixed with 2-3 shelled corn while corn is hot, after taking it out of our Grain Softener, and letting stand 2 or 3 hours in separate tank with cover over it, makes a good hog feed. We add 1-2 gallon of soda to each 15 bushels corn we cook and this helps to keep hogs healthy.

Cob meal cooked and mixed with alfalfa or clover the same way makes a good feed for milk cows. Silage will also make a good mixture, but chopped shock corn answers nicely, if it is very hot when mixed, with plenty of water in feed.

The Amish people mix their feed at 4 o'clock each morning to feed at sun-up, they put the cookers in their barns on cement floors, and make a flue of double tile, 12 in. and 8 in. with cement between them, to pass through loft. This makes a good room in the barn to mend harness, etc.

Do not feed shelled corn alone to anything. It is too rich when cooked in my cookers, too much digestible protein and oil in it. To anyone who feeds cattle we will ship one on 30 days trial, so it will not cost you a cent to test it and all cattle feeders will find it saves them 1-2 their feed, and hold the gain on hogs commonly obtained with the syrup and oil drawn off the corn made into a slop.

CHAS. WOOD, R. F. D. No. 6

P. S.—This mixture for cattle makes the best horse feed I ever saw fed. The Dutch feed it to all their horses. Try letting it steep in boiling hot water on back of your cook stove for one team but do not let it get hot enough so you can smell it cooking, and it will then lack almost 25 per cent of being the same as my feed.

EMBARGO RUMORS MAKE WHEAT
PRICE TUMBLE AFTER AN ADVANCE

Weakness is Rendered Worse by Dispatch Telling of a Fresh Atcorn, Oats and Provisions Decline.

Chicago, Feb. 25.—Embargo rumors and the prospect of the Russian surplus finding an outlet through the Dardanelles made wheat tumble in price today after an early advance.

The market closed unsettled 25c

leading staples, too, all finished at a net decline—corn down 15c and provisions 10c to 12c to 55c.

Notwithstanding that owing to suspension of United States govern-

Greatest of All Human Blessings

The most wonderful thing in the world is love expressed in the helpless infant. And among those aids and comforts for expectant mothers is the well known "Mother's Friend."
This is an external application to enable the abdominal muscles to become more pliant, to expand naturally without undue strain on the strain upon cords and ligaments.
In almost every settled community are women who have enjoyed the blessing of this famous remedial and helpful embrocation. Their daughters have grown up to learn of its splendid assistance.
Applied as directed upon those muscles involved it soothes the fine network of nerves with which all the muscles are supplied. Thus a great share of the pains so much dreaded may be avoided and the period of expectancy passed through in ease and comfort.
Anything that adds so much comfort must be counted as a blessing indeed.
In a little book sent by mail much useful information is given to inexperienced mothers. It tells how to use "Mother's Friend" and how to avoid caking breasts. It has been prepared in our laboratory for over four years and is known favorably to most druggists everywhere. Get a bottle to-day and write for book to Bradfield Regulator Co., 509 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Be sure to ask for and see that you get "Mother's Friend."
Do not accept a substitute.
What is said herein of "Mother's Friend" is but a repetition of the thoughts expressed by thousands of happy mothers who have successfully used this splendid external application.

Dr. Knott's New-Plan Remedy Gives Quick, Sure Results Without Opiates.

For 31 years the originator of Croupine, Dr. J. D. Knott, has been a family physician in his home town in Monticello, Ill. The demand for his new-plan remedy for croup has grown tremendously, simply because Dr. Knott's Croupine is in no sense a patent medicine, absolutely does not contain morphine, chloral, codeine, chloroform, cannabis or other poisonous or habit-forming drugs, and because it acts instantly. It is a new blessing to thousands of mothers. When your child is seized with croup, quick action is necessary. Dr. Knott's Croupine relieves the frightful gasping and clutching for breath, loosens the phlegm, and clears the throat at once. There is no vomiting, no bad after-effects. Mrs. F. D. Duvall, wife of the Sheriff of Platt County, at Monticello, Ill., says: "We keep Dr. Knott's Croupine in the house all the time." Dr. Knott's Croupine should be in your home, too, for instant use. It gives instant relief also in coughs, colds, grippe and bronchitis. Sold by all druggists in 25c and 50c bottles, or sent direct by J. D. Knott & Co., Monticello, Ill. The 50c size contains 2 1/2 times as much as the 25c size. Money back cheerfully if not satisfied.

TAFT ADDRESSES EDUCATORS IN CONVENTION AT CINCINNATI

States Country Needs an Opportunity for Standardization and Comparison of School Systems—Suggests Method for Work.

Cincinnati, Feb. 25.—Prof. William H. Taft of Yale university, former president of the United States, speaking before the convention of the department of superintendence of the National Education association here today, said:

"The cause of free public education is more sacred and of more fundamental importance than almost any other before our people. It is one that awakens the profound interest of the people and commands the greatest and most willing self-sacrifice by the taxpaying public. The consequence of this fervor is that our school systems are not as much scrutinized as they should be. Indeed, it is now difficult for the public of a community to learn the facts as to the thoroughness of the discipline and of the knowledge imparted in their schools or of economy in the expenditures of their funds devoted to education.

Parents are themselves not qualified to pass upon the result of a public school system in a town, county, or district in such a way as to make their opinion the best criticism. Hence there is great opportunity for fustian and shoddy in the product concealed under a cloak of a pretentious curriculum and growing annual reports.

Country Needs Standardization.
"What we need in the country is an opportunity for standardization and comparison of school systems in the different states and different cities. This, I think we might have by establishing what Washington recommended—a national university in Washington.

"The bureau of education might well be enlarged into a university which should not be a teaching university but one with a corps of experts who could offer to the people of all the states and the people of all local communities, the opportunity of having their respective school systems examined and reported on, as to proper scope, efficiency, thoroughness and economy. The same university should hold periodic examinations in convenient parts of the country which any person might upon payment of a small fee take and if successful receive a certificate equivalent to a degree in certain established courses.

Value Would Become Great.
"All this would be voluntary; but if the system were impartial, thorough, and wisely severe as it should be, the value of the reports and the value of the certificates would become great. They would assure the people of a community that they were getting their money's worth from a school system officially approved by such a university, and by assuring them that the graduates of their school could obtain degrees from such examinations. Thus we should soon have a standardization of our school systems of the highest value.

"The pressure of the tax payers upon their particular school authorities, to apply for an examination and report would be so great that it would soon become equivalent to a compulsory system. It would stimulate school authorities to earnest work. It would eliminate shoddy, pretence and show; would minimize exploiting and publicity methods; and would give a proof of excellence and comparative high standing that would be incontestable. I tried to secure larger appropriations in my administration for the bureau of education with a view of beginning the system in a small way but was unsuccessful."

CONSERVATOR APPOINTED.

A few weeks ago Mrs. Sophia Ex of Chicago was taken to Maplewood sanitarium for treatment which has been given her but it was discovered that her mind was deranged so that she was unable to manage her affairs. It seemed best to take steps to protect her property which consists of bonds and stocks to a considerable amount and which is locked up in a safety vault in Chicago.

Accordingly the matter was considered yesterday in the county court before Judge William E. Thomson and the jury of six men decided she was deranged and in no condition to handle her funds nor to see to their own personal wants. Judge Thomson will in due time appoint a conservator in accordance with the findings of the jury. Dr. A. H. Dolan filed the petition simply as an accommodation to the friends and relatives of the lady as none of them live here and it would have been an inconvenience for them to appear and there was no real need of it. The law requires such a petition to be filed by a resident of the county in which the deranged person is tried for insanity.

SALVATIONISTS OF SOUTH MEET

Jacksonville, Fla., Feb. 25.—The annual winter congress of the Salvation Army in the south convened here today, with many of the leaders present. Colonel William Peart, second in command of the work in America, is leading the services and the discussion on extension of the work this year.

GEORGIA SURGEONS MEET.

Atlanta, Ga., Feb. 28.—Over 300 of the most prominent physicians and surgeons of Georgia are attending the annual convention of the Georgia Surgeons' Club. The annual banquet takes place tonight, and a business session tomorrow. It is proposed to extend the membership to other states of the South and change the name of the organization to the Southern Surgeons' Club.

COMING TO THE GRAND.

The "tired business man" is promised a veritable tonic in "High Jinks," which Arthur Hammerstein will present at the Grand Wednesday, March 3rd. Rudolf Friml, who sprang into instant fame as composer of "The Firefly," has furnished a musical score, whose numbers are said to be light, airy, tuneful and catchy, and a plot, said to be invigorating to the highest degree was added. "Three Twins" and "Madame Sherry" to the world of gaiety. The plot has to do with a magic perfume which raises whomsoever gets a whiff of it to the seventh heaven of hilarity. An American nerve specialist practicing in Paris tries his virtues on a young female patient, and it operates so well that the young woman throws her arms around his neck and kisses him raptuously. Her husband witnesses the proceedings and, skeptical of the magic of the perfume, decrees that either the doctor shall die or else surrender Mrs. Doctor to him to pay hug for hug and kiss for kiss. The doctor agrees to the latter proposition, but seeks to delude the Frenchman by passing off a young actress as his wife. The plot becomes more and more intricate and more and more hilarious, after the manner of farce, as the play proceeds. Besides a large handsomely-gowned chorus of pretty girls who laugh and sing and dance their way through the piece, the company includes a score of well-known entertainers.

"SAFETY FIRST" CONVENTION.

New York, Feb. 25.—The various "Safety First" bodies which have been organized in many cities of the United States, with the object of safeguarding human life and property, have sent delegates to a convention which opened here today, and a national organization is being perfected. The movement to teach the public the necessity of observing every means of safety for themselves and their neighbors has swept the country.

The convention met this morning at the headquarters of the Safety First Society. Some forty cities were represented. A few months ago, Frederick H. Elliott, general secretary of the society, made an extensive trip through the country conferring with chambers of commerce, boards of trade and safety committees, and as a result it was decided to nationalize the propaganda and extend it into every city and town. Public service corporations, operating the railroads, steamships and electric railway lines are in sympathy with the movement, and have offered to promote the safety first idea among their employees.

NOTABLE JAPANESE RECEPTION

New York, Feb. 25.—The Japanese Ambassador and his countess Chinda will be the honor guests at a reception to be given tonight by the Japanese Society of New York. Admiral Baron Dewa, representing the Japanese navy at the San Francisco Exposition, will be present. Many army and navy officers will attend in uniform, and the affair will be made more spectacular by the appearance of the Japanese women in their native costumes.

PRINCE OF WALES THANKS RELIEF WORKERS.

Boston, Feb. 25.—Sir George E. Foster, minister of trade and commerce of Canada and Dr. W. Peterson, head of McGill University, will be the speakers at a benefit meeting tonight for the British Imperial Relief Fund. The Prince of Wales has written his thanks to the contributors of New England.

CATARRH GERMS EASILY KILLED

Only Way to Cure This Disease is to Destroy its Cause.

By a Specialist.
If you have catarrh and want to get rid of it you must kill the germs which cause catarrh. Stomach dosing, ointments, sprays, creams, douches, etc., fail because they overlook this fact. They all help by giving temporary relief but they do not reach the germ life that has found lodgement in your head, nose, throat, and could not destroy it if they did.

The best known way of destroying the dangerous germs of Catarrh and consequently ending the disease itself, is to breathe into the air passages of your nose and throat the pleasant, penetrating air of Hyomei (pronounced High-o-mei). Hyomei is made from purest oil of Eucalyptus combined with other powerful, healing, antiseptic and germicidal ingredients. You breathe it through a little pocket inhaler which Coover & Shreve and other leading druggists in Jacksonville and vicinity are furnishing with every complete treatment sold. Every time you inhale the sweet, fragrant air of Hyomei through this little device you are drawing into your swollen, inflamed, germ laden membranes a medicated air which will not only reduce all the swelling and inflammation and open your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages, but will absolutely and positively destroy every trace of Catarrh germ life it reaches. Druggists are so sure of the blessed, lasting relief that Hyomei brings to catarrh sufferers that they sell it invariably on the positive guarantee that money paid will be refunded if successful results are not secured from its use. Get a Hyomei outfit from your druggist today and begin at once to drive this dangerous and disgusting disease from your system for ever.

FORMER MINISTER TO ANSWER WHITE SLAVE CHARGE

Insanity It Is Said Will be the Plea of Rev. James Morrison Darnell.

Chicago, Feb. 25.—Rev. James Morrison Darnell, the much-married preacher of Kenosha, Wis., will be arraigned today in the federal court charged with violation of the Mann white slave law. His attorneys have indicated that they will plead insanity. The complaint against the former pastor was signed by the chief of the local bureau of investigation. It charges that on Nov. 20, 1914, Darnell illegally transported Ruth Soper from her home in Owatonna, Minn., to Chicago and thence to Kenosha, Wis. Ruth Soper is the mother of his four year old son. She is said to have turned against him.

When Darnell accepted the Kenosha pastorate, he told the trustees that he was married and would bring his wife to that city later. En route to Kenosha he stopped off in Chicago, met 17 year old Doris Vaughn and after a whirlwind courtship, married her. Telling his bride he was on his way to prepare a home for her, he kissed her goodbye and departed.

After Darnell had been in Kenosha a few weeks, his "wife and baby" arrived. The "wife" was Ruth Soper, daughter of a Minnesota publisher, whom Darnell had known when he was studying theology in Chicago University. She was a co-ed there, and one of the brightest and most popular students. Soon after the arrival of his alleged wife and son, a letter reached the Rev. Darnell that his bride was coming to Kenosha. The church warden made an investigation of rumors that were flying about, and the exit of Darnell occurred at 3 o'clock one morning after writing his resignation as pastor.

Darnell went straight to Chicago to the home of his bride, where he insisted he had never been married to any other woman. The child-wife for several days held her confidence in Darnell, but when a third girl, Ethel Spurgeon "Darnell" of Avon, Ill., showed a marriage certificate and then divorce papers which had given her freedom from Darnell, Doris Vaughn Darnell sued for divorce. In the divorce proceedings, Darnell's young bride testified that she had once visited Darnell in Kenosha, and that he had admitted to her he was living with another woman.

Since the divorce proceedings in January, Darnell has been trying to obtain a marriage license to wed the Soper woman. They went to North Dakota and other states, it is said, in a frantic effort to become legally wed.

EXPRESS APPRECIATION

The following letter received from the president and secretary of the "Association for Works of Mercy," is self explanatory:

94 College Avenue, Greenville, Pa., Feb. 20, 1915.
Mr. S. W. Nichols, Jacksonville, Ill.
Dear Mr. Nichols:

A PIANO FOR MAPLE GROVE SCHOOL.

Wednesday afternoon a delightful surprise was sprung on the teacher and pupils of Maple Grove school and they have not been so happy in a long time. While the pupils of the geography class were coming to the platform in front of the door and proceeded to unload an elegant piano. The whole community have been desirous of having such an instrument in the school, but had no thought of getting it just at the present time, but the board was anxious to please with such a useful article.

The driver of the delivery wagon was going to take away the old cabinet organ which has done service so long in the school, but a wall went up from both teachers and pupils, for the instrument had been

FIND MISS AMUNDSON'S BODY.

Minneapolis, Minn., Feb. 25.—Miss Svanhild Amundson, the student missing from the University of Minnesota, is dead. Her body was found in the suburbs late this afternoon lying on the bank of Minnehaha creek. The finders, a group of searchers from the university, said they were satisfied she took her own life. The coroner assumed charge of the body. Her parents in Norway have been notified.

SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES

$3.00 PER YEAR

Less than One Cent a Day.

There are hundreds of people in this vicinity who have become accustomed to using a tin box in which to keep their valuables, who by using one of our SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES will find they are safer, strictly private and more satisfactory in every way. It requires two keys to unlock the box. The customer has one and the Bank the other, which is the master key. If you should lose your key, and some one else should find it, it would do them no good, because it would require the master key, which we hold before the box could be opened.

There is no better or stronger vault in the United States, and the rate we pay on burglary insurance, which we carry, is the lowest in the country.

Come in and let our vault clerk, Mr. Ewen I. Whitlock, explain.

CANDIDATES TELL THEIR VIEWS

study the list of questions submitted. "My work for the county is an open book and my whole life I submit to the inspection of any who may desire to question."

Mr. Gates Outlines Platform.
Strict enforcement of law, the institution of a civil service test for municipal appointive officers and the retaining of present employees who are discharging their duties in a competent manner, were stated by William DeMotte Gates as planks in the platform on which he stands. "If elected I expect to give up the position I now hold and give my entire time to city affairs," said Mr. Gates, who expressed disapproval of the proposed salary reduction and said the work required of a commissioner in full discharge of his duty is worth more than the six hundred dollars proposed in a recent petition. Mr. Gates said that he has always been opposed to the licensed saloon and affirmed his belief in the principles of law enforcement. He expressed his intention to work for economy and said that city help should be paid before bills for materials and supplies are settled, when temporary stringency makes this necessary.

"I believe that city affairs should be carried on so as to fall within the income available and disfavor strongly running behind in finance as the city is doing. I am in favor of a municipal light plant if the city can afford it. I opposed the bond issue because I thought the city could not afford to assume further financial burdens. The history of water supplies as we have now in Jacksonville has not been satisfactory in the main, and I would advocate therefore as little expenditure as is commensurate with keeping the present wells in good repair. I would not favor a large outlay for the digging of more wells until further experience shows the supply to be a permanent one. I favor the settlement of the franchise question in accord with the wishes of the people, urging that the light and gas franchise be given the first consideration. Rates should, I think, be figured on a basis of a fair return to the company, allowing citizens the benefit of all reductions rather than requiring the payment of a gross sum to the city treasury." With a proper settlement of franchise problems," said Mr. Gates, "I think we can get a good deal lower rates on electricity and gas than we are getting now."

Mr. Kastrup's Talk.
Edward Kastrup first gave attention to the list presented, question by question, stating his willingness to act as chief of police, street commissioner, etc., urging speedy pay for city employees, condemned the deriving of revenue from periodic fines and asserted his support of the city light plant. "He said in conclusion:

"I know the city's needs and conditions and favor efficiency first in all departments. In the event of my election I shall use my vote and influence for the perpetual municipal ownership of the light plant and water works for their greatest possible improvement and extension. I should insist on rigid economy in the handling of city funds. I stand absolutely for a larger, better and cleaner Jacksonville."

B. F. Ragsdale States Belief.
In beginning his remarks, B. F. Ragsdale stated strongly his opposition to the liquor traffic in all forms and laid down his purpose of enforcing the law in every detail. "A modern board of health," he said, "should certainly meet the favor of all who have at heart the interests of the people. Municipal ownership, should, I think, be extended as far as the ability of the city will permit. The city, I think, can be conducted within its revenues." Mr. Ragsdale in mentioning the utilities matter, re-iterated the belief that the matter should be worked out as soon as feasible and that the question should be submitted to the people. He expressed disapproval of the periodic fine system and favored appointment of employees on a basis of fitness only.

J. E. Stice States Platform.
J. E. Stice said offenders should be given the full extent of the law and affirmed his belief in law and order at all times. "During the twenty years I have lived in Jacksonville I have been opposed to the saloon and am personally in favor of a dry town. I favor salary reduction and think commissioners should serve, not for the pay alone, but for good of the city and the general public welfare. Municipal revenue, I think, can be made to meet city expenses and employees can be paid promptly, especially if the commissioners' salaries are cut down and the difference applied to the general revenue. I realize with all good citizens the need of good business methods in the management of city affairs, and that municipal matters should be given the same consideration we give to our private business."

Mr. Stice said the water and light plants owned by the city should be maintained and so far as possible extended. He said he had opposed the bond issue, was in favor of the north end pumping plant insofar as it is a paying proposition.

Joshua Vasconcellos.
Mr. Vasconcellos, by way of introduction, said that he was born July 25, 1885, that he is married and has always made Jacksonville his home. In speaking of his service as street commissioner, he said: "I was appointed street commissioner by Theodore Tyrell, April 21st, 1898 and served until May 4th, 1899. On account of space cannot give full record, or all work done. The cost for labor and material in the highway, sidewalk and street paving and repair departments including the re-topping of East Court street was $6,193.06, the balance on hand May 4th, 1899 was $6,304.83. My report made to the city Jan. 1st, 1899 showed cash received for dirt, etc., and turned over to the city treasurer to the amount of $3.48. My report of May 4th, 1899 showed cash received for dirt, turned over to the city clerk to the amount of $20.30."

"I am a carpenter by trade and have been contracting and building since June, 1891. At present the senior member of the firm of Vasconcellos and Sons. I have believed in, worked and voted for no license since Oct. 30, 1903. And believe in the enforcement of the local option law and other laws."

"I am in favor of all public enterprises that are for the benefit of the city. Should I be elected I would endeavor to handle any that might come up in the same manner in which I handle the city's business when I was the street commissioner and with the same care that I handle my own private business."

William F. Widmayer.
Mr. Widmayer said that he is personally in favor of a dry town. Although by birth and training he was lead to believe otherwise, he is now against the saloon and will, he said, in the event of election, insist that our dry laws be enforced. For the last two campaigns he has worked to oust the saloon. "If elected I propose to be the real head of my department and will serve as street commissioner, water commissioner, according to the department assigned, that the city may be saved as much as possible and economy be strictly enforced." He stated his intention of devoting his time to the duties of office, declaring at the same time disapproval of the proposed salary reduction ordinance. He favored the maintenance of the city light and water plants and promised to use his best effort to see that city employees receive pay promptly.

UNITED STATES PUBLIC HEALTH SERVICE

Armed Neutrality Between Germs and Body Defenses Prevents Colds.

People who have colds, according to the U. S. Public Health Service, are suffering from an attack of germs which they carry in their own mouths or throats. These have been permitted to reside there in a state of armed neutrality between the germs and the body defenses, until fatigue, emotion, intemperance, over exertion, or sudden chill, temporarily reduces the integrity of the body's defensive agents. This produces the aggregation of symptoms known as a cold. Colds are really very serious matters, and should never be treated lightly. If the body's resistance to one kind of disease germ is lowered, it is quite easy for other germs to gain a foothold and spring into activity at such a time. The infection which has produced a cold may extend to other parts of the body, and middle ear disease and deafness may ensue, or a remote joint may be infected, thus causing a lowered efficiency throughout life. Many of the cases which are diagnosed as rheumatism are merely the chronic poisoning which, results from the continued growth of the same germs which produce colds. Since colds are induced by a lowering of the bodily efficiency, it is seen that they may be avoided by the maintenance of the bodily processes, in a good condition. This means the observance of the rules of hygiene, adequate food, avoidance of excesses, the securing of sufficient sleep and the like. Above all, the teeth should be kept in good condition and the mouth kept clean.

It is the duty of persons who have colds to take every precaution against transmitting them to others. The agency in the transmission of colds from one person to another is the sputum and this transference may occur directly by sneezing, coughing or expectorating. Some one has called the cold the strap-hangers disease because of the frequency with which it is contracted in overcrowded street cars. The common handkerchief is a great transmitter of disease. People with colds should either destroy the handkerchiefs which they use or sterilize them by boiling them. If you do not want to give your cold to somebody else, hold your handkerchief to your hand over your face when you cough or sneeze, and do not indulge in promiscuous spitting. If you do not wish to contract a cold from a person who has one, avoid intimate personal contact with him. In the old days they used to hang a bag of asafetida around the schoolboy's neck in order to protect him against colds and this did to a certain extent perform the function for which it was designed, because the odor of asafetida is such as to discourage close personal contact. A little cold is a dangerous thing. Many a case of tuberculosis is dated from a neglected cold. Keep up your bodily defenses and avoid the careless person who is acting as a chronic distributor of colds.

GRACE METHODISTS HAVE MEETING OF DEEP INTEREST

"That Thou Doest Do Quickly"
Text of Pastor Miller Last Night
—Cottage Prayer Meetings for Today.

Last night's service was one of the deep interest. The text for the evening was from St. John 13-27. "That thou doest do quickly." The world has adopted this text. Everywhere it is manifested that speed is method and aim of the age. Five years are crowded into one. All departments are put under high speed programs. In the factory, "scientific management" is working men and machinery up to the limit of capacity. Shall we of the kingdom of Christ furnish the world with ideals that we fail to follow ourselves?

The life of Christ is a marvelous example of swift, steady successful achievement. Into those three years were crowded the deeds and words that have stimulated the world for twenty centuries. The need of the church today is the spirit of urgency in her work. The example of the angels sent to warn and save the family of Lot when Sodom was destroyed should shame the weak and dilatory spirit of so many in the church today. Why should unsaved men and women be alarmed about their sinful condition when they see so little concern and urgency in the life and work of the church?

Life's day is short and swift. We must work while it is day for the night cometh.

Splendid reports come in from the cottage prayer-meetings. Today, Friday, cottage prayer meetings will be held at the home of Mrs. Marshall on Mound avenue; at the home of Mrs. Al Henderson, 647 S. Diamond St.; at the home of Mrs. Hilda Ross, 226 Pine street; at the home of W. I. Brown, North Church street and Independence avenue. All neighbors and friends in the vicinity of these homes are cordially invited.

THIS WEEK WE HAVE RECEIVED SEVERAL HUNDRED NEW SPRING GARMENTS FOR LADIES AND MISSES—COATS, SUITS, WAIST AND DRESSES—UNUSUALLY ATTRACTIVE STYLES IN NEW COLORS AND MATERIALS—ALSO WE ARE ADDING NEW HATS TO OUR MILLINERY DISPLAY EACH DAY.

MORTUARY

Rogers.

Mrs. Mary E. Rogers passed away at 6:10 o'clock Thursday evening, at the family residence, 845 South East street from the effects of general paralysis from which she had been a sufferer for two years and four months. She was a daughter of James and Catherine Crowe and was born in this city April 25, 1865 and was at the time of her death 49 years and 10 months of age. She was for a number of years engaged in the millinery business in this city, which has been her home since her birth. She has been from early childhood a member of the Church of Our Savior.

Arrangements for the funeral will be announced later. The family request that friends omit flowers.

WHEN THE CHURCH BURNED.

At the time the First Presbyterian church burned, December 1, 1861, Dr. Glover had been very active in getting a new organ for his charge. It was the first large organ ever put up in Jacksonville, so its placing was an event, even of war times. In those days, L. B. Glover, then known here as "Beecher", and now known in Chicago and elsewhere as Lyman B. Glover, and Ensey Moore were great cronies. It might be whispered that they were of the mature age of fourteen years.

The man who came from the East to put up the organ had to have some one to "pump" for him, when he got to the tuning stage of finishing. Beecher Glover and Ensey Moore did a good deal of the muscular part of furnishing the musical power, of evenings. They were so employed the evening before the church was burned and they had become much interested in the expected flow of music on the next day, the Sabbath. But also, their hopes, with those of Dr. Glover and others, were brought to a sad state when the instrument with the church that night of its destruction.

Speaking of Glover is a reminder that when he took charge as editor in the firm of Chapin and Glover, in April, 1863, Ensey Moore was his "local editor", as the city reporter was then called.

One day Glover said to Moore: "Do you know we are doing something no other fellows of our age are going in this state?"

"What is that?" asked Moore. "Running a newspaper as well as this is being done at this time!"

8:00 p. m.—Mt. Sterling and Pittsfield.
9:00 p. m.—Illinois College vs. Carthage college.

Everything is ready for the big district high school basketball tournament to be played in the gymnasium of the David Prince school today and Saturday. Some of the teams already here are Canton, Pawnee, Carlinville and Lewistown. Thursday afternoon in the auditorium of the high school a rousing meeting was held by the students and teachers and visiting principals, coaches and members of the teams. Yesterday addresses were made by all the coaches present, members of the Pawnee team and it was a great "boost" that the tournament received. The various committee appointed to look after the work were busy yesterday, and everything so far is being conducted in a business like way. A free cloak room will be maintained. The high school is preparing to furnish a cafeteria lunch from 12 to 1:30 and from 5 to 7. For five cents a dish you can buy beans, meat loaf, baked ham, mashed potatoes, coffee, cocoa, two brown bread sandwiches, two pieces of apple pie, pumpkin pie, raspberry tart, Egg sandwich 10c.

Winner of Tournament.
The prospective winner of the tournament is always an interesting topic and a number of schools have entered with the avowed purpose of taking the honors. Springfield claims to have a good title and the team has been practicing hard the past week. Griggsville is another strong five and Canton is likely to be among the top notchers. Quincy is also figuring on championship dope, while Pawnee and Lewistown claim to be fast.

Just where Jacksonville will land is problematic. The local lads have been playing in hard lines during the season, but they have been doubling their efforts in anticipation of the tournament. They will meet Astoria for the first game this afternoon at 3:30. Lewistown claims to have humbled every team in their section except Canton. Harrison and Ray, guards of the Lewistown team, are great players. This town has a coach C. B. Smith, who produced the sensational 1912 team of Canton which won the tournament here three years ago. Springfield has defeated Canton.

The College Game.
Much interest is manifested in the college game tonight at 9 o'clock between Illinois and Carthage. Coach Harmon will have in his lineup: McLaughlin and Stewart, forwards; Frisbie, center; Pierce and Atchison, guards.

Bloomington Tournament.
Bloomington, Ill., Feb. 25.—The Central Illinois district high school basketball tournament opened here tonight. The scores were as follows: Gibson City, 24; Monticello, 30; Belleflower, 16; Peoria Central, 30.

Lincoln, 29; Onarga, 43. Saybrook, 27; Bloomington, 40. Millikin Wins Again.
Millikin, 54; Southern Illinois Normal, 10.

The Hat Event of the Season

Our first display of the New Hats for Men—authentic styles for Spring, 1915. Selected in style, block and colors expressly for men in this community.

The hat pictured at the upper left is the "Ensign," a very nifty hat for young men.

The one to the right is the "Belmont," a very proper hat for the man who wants just the right dignity to his headwear.

All the new shades—ivy, tartan, marine, pearl, slate and black; contrasting and matched bands.

Drop in and try them on. You'll find it easier to see the difference in the style than we could tell you about it.
